

Dear Ranch View Families,

Parent-Teacher Conference Night is on February 15th. Parent-Teacher Conference Night gives parents, students, and teachers an opportunity to meet to discuss student progress, ask and answer questions, and partner on school-home supports. Our conferences are student led with student's taking an active role in explaining their learning.

When is it? Thursday, Feb. 15, 2018 7th Grade 5:30-7:30 Open House for all students (3:30-5:30 7th grade pre-scheduled only) 8th Grade 3:30-5:30 Open House for all students (5:30-7:30 8th grade pre-scheduled only) 	What do I need to bring? Parents bring their child(ren) and any questions they have about school.
What will we talk about? Students will be sharing what they have learned in their classes, often including goals, struggles and celebrations. Teachers will talk about what they have noticed over the the time they have had with your child thus far and listen to your insights in order to help your child learn and grow. 	What else you should know. Conferences are in an open-house format, with several families in the near vicinity at the same time. There is time to meet and touch base with each teacher, but for extensive or sensitive conversations, please book a future meeting time with the teacher or team of teachers to best meet your family's needs.
